GENTLEMAN'S DRAW JOINS THE FIGHT WITH VTA

CASSELBERRY, FL – Today, Jonathan Risteen, owner of Gentleman's Draw, announced the national e-liquid manufacturer has joined the Vapor Technology Association's rapidly growing national campaign to save the vapor industry from harmful regulations and legislation in Washington, DC and state legislatures across the country. VTA is the leading advocate for manufacturers, vape shops, small business owners, wholesalers, and entrepreneurs across the country who have developed innovative and quality vapor products, providing adult consumers with a safer alternative to traditional combustible products.

"At Gentleman's Draw, we are committed to providing adult consumers with access to high quality products, while promoting brand integrity and the overall reputation of the vapor industry," said Jonathan Risteen, owner of Gentleman's Draw. "VTA has demonstrated the professional leadership that our industry needs in Washington, D.C. and in state capitals around the country. Because our products are sold all across the country, we are excited to join forces with VTA to save the vapor industry and preserve access to these life changing products for hundreds of thousands of Americans."

"VTA is very excited to have Gentleman's Draw, a leading e-liquid manufacturer in the United States, join our effort to save vapor," said Tony Abboud, VTA's Executive Director. "This is a company that is committed to making high-quality vapor products accessible to individuals who are looking for a better alternative to smoking. We look forward to working together to fight irresponsible regulations and legislation across the country that would limit access to these life changing products."
